Rrrrrrrrrr Numb. 6581.

The Daily Courant.

Friday, November 23. 1722.

THE following Address of the Corporation of Grantham, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable John Lord Viscount Tyrconnell, one of their Representatives in Parliament, introduced by his Grace the Duke of Rutland Recorder of that Town.

May it please your Majesty,

WE the Aldermen, Recorder, Burgesses, Gentlemen, and Inhabitants of your Majesty's Ancient Corporation of Grantham, are truly sensible that the Welfare of our Constitution in Church and State can be no otherwise preserved than by our inviolable Adherence to the Interests of your Majesty, and that of your Royal Family; and we cannot but look upon all Plots and Conspiracies against your Majesty's sacred Person and Government, as the most dangerous Attempts upon our Liberty and Religion.

It is with the utmost Grief and Indignation that we hear Persons that have the highest Obligations to their Country, engage in Measures so Destructive of its Peace and Happiness, and in Violation of the most solemn repeated Oaths, venturing their own Lives and Fortunes, and involving their Country in Blood and Misery, to introduce Popery and Arbitrary Power upon a Protestant free People.

We therefore humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our most steady Loyalty, that the Enemies of your Crown and Dignity may know that none of their Artifices shall ever withdraw us from our Allegiance: That as we are in Judgment convinced that your Majesty's and your Kingdoms Honour and Security are the same, so we are resolved in our Actions to appear good Englishmen and sound Members of our Church, by shewing ourselves your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects.

Constantinople, Oct. 11. The Grand Signior has sent several Interpreters to the Czar's Resident who for some time past has been in the Country, to be informed of the Progress the Czar makes in his Expedition near the Caspian Sea; but the Resident having always answered that hitherto he had not received any News from his Master's Army, the Grand-Vinier has desired him to return to this City, which he did accordingly the 3d Instant, not to heighten the Suspicions the Grand Signior has conceived of the Czar's Proceedings, it being generally reported in this City that he has caused several Forts to be built on the Frontiers of Persia, designing to enter there with his Army the next Spring. It is assured also, that the Aga who is appointed to go to the Czar in Quality of Envoy Extraordinary, is to begin his Journey next Week, and has orders to observe the Motion of the Muscovite Troops. The two Ragusian Deputies who came hither last Year with the usual Tribute which that Republick annually pays to the Grand Signior, were some Days ago released out of Prison where they had been confined for not having paid the whole Sum; but are directed to send forthwith the 20 Purses of Gold that are behind in Payment. Several Bodies of Janizaries that were quartered in the Neighbouring Provinces are ordered to return hither, and warlike Preparations are carrying on with great Diligence.

Moscow, Oct. 23. Deliberations grow very frequent among the Muscovite Nobility relating to the Czar's Successour, and 'tis not many Days ago since two Counts and two Barons were taken into Custody for speaking with undue Freedom on that Head; being examined before the Regency, they declared they never had any Intention to undertake any thing against the Czar's Government, but were only desirous that his Majesty would be pleased to name the Person whom he held most worthy to succeed him after his Decease. Colonel Sennitzky, who some Months ago obtained his Liberty and a Passport to return from Siberia, where he had been banished, went the 29th past to wait upon Prince Menzikoff, to thank him for the Share he had in procuring his Releasement; the Prince ordered him to attend at the Council of War, and upon his coming there, caused the Colonel's Sword and Passport to be taken from him, and his Person to be clapt under Arrest; but 'tis not said publickly upon what Account. The Regency has also given Orders to enquire into the Conduct of some Ecclesiasticks in this City, who are supposed to hold secret Correspondence with the Turks, and to receive Pensions for conveying to them the Resolutions of the Council.

Warsaw, Nov. 11. The Success of the Diet is yet doubtful; the principal Affairs under Deliberation meeting with almost daily Interruption either by one Deputy or another, upon frivolous Pretences. Hitherto no Matter of Importance could possibly be there treated upon, and 'tis feared the Diet may break up without concluding any thing touching the Ratification of the Peace with Sweden, or the Czar's Claim to Imperial Dignity, or the Affairs of Livonia and Courland.

Florence, Nov. 7. The Grand Duke often visits the Churches, notwithstanding his Physicians Advice to the contrary; and answers such Persons who endeavour to dissuade him from those kinds of Devotions, --- I will spare you the Pains shortly of making me such Sort of Remonstrances; I have no very long while to live. Father Alcanio, Minister of Spain, delivered some Days ago a Letter from the King his Master to the Great Duke, relating to the Affairs of Italy.

Genoa, Nov. 7. Count Ilderis, Envoy from Germany, is returned hither lately from Florence. The Court of Vienna has ordered him to set a French Ship at Liberty that was brought hither with all her Lading by an Imperial Ship. The Magistrate of Health having received Advice that four Persons had died of the Plague on board a French Ship that touched at Port Collioure, near Perpignan, has caused the Commissaries to be acquainted with it, that they take Care not to let that Ship have Admittance to any Port belonging to this State.

Westminster, Nov. 23, 1722.

In Answer to the false Accounts industriously published in several of the Publick Prints, it has been thought fit to publish the Account of the Poll, which has been made up by the Clerks to the High-Bailiff, and deliver'd last Night by him to the Candidates in Manner following, viz.

	Lord Carpenter.	Mr. Mountague.	Sir Tho. Clarges.	Mr. Cotton.
Monday	2147	2221	600	720
Tuesday	1406	1539	1218	1465
Wednesday	626	724	654	853
Thursday	197	207	185	228
	4376	4691	2657	3266

We now again appeal to all Mankind that have the least Regard to Truth, whether at any Time since the Poll began the Lord Carpenter and Mr. Mountague had an Inconsiderable Majority, as was inserted in their Scandalous Advertisements.
